

"H" + "Cl" are added across/to the alkene (an addition rxn)

This rxn is actually simpler than when H₂O is added to a double bond (as we did in class/ Fig 1.4) as no proton transfers to/from H₂O are necessary.